["Steps Suggested to Turkish Government."]

1. Stop deportations.
2. In places where deportations have commenced leave families of soldiers and those who have no men.
3. To give a delay of 10-15 days to places where deportations begin, to allow the people to arrange their affairs.
4. Security of life and property during the journey.
5. Procure provisions during journey by the Government. The needy are many and the journey long.
6. Inform the people of their destination.
7. Allow correspondence while traveling and when they have arrived at their destination.
8. Give them assistance even after arrival.
9. Allow the clergy accompanying the people to correspond with the Patriarchate.
10. Fix the vilayets in which they will live, allow the people to decide the place where they will live in the Vilayet and authorize them to travel within those vilayets.
